Good, Clean Fun

We run down the summer's most wholesome yet fabulous findings.

CALLING ALL TWEENS

A Sagaponack resident and president of Wilhelmina Kids and Teens, Marlene Wallach wanted to help girls face adulthood with more fun and less stress. Her new website, Just Ask Marlene, is geared toward just that: promoting healthy self-image to girls, offering insight on modeling, fashion, beauty and fitness in an easy-to-manuever—not to mention fun and colorful—format. justaskmarlene.com—MARY WHEELER

HAVE FROSTING, WILL TRAVEL

NYC's favorite kid cookery, Cupcake Kids!, is packing its sprinkles and heading for the Hamptons. Wall-Streeter-turned-cupcake-froster Jessi Walter teaches kids to mix and measure their way to delicious cupcakes, cookies and whole-wheat pizza. You provide the space and she'll provide the ingredients to teach everyone from a singular child to an entire birthday party (she even makes camp calls!). Ask for the Cooks with Books class and she'll tailor the course to your little one's favorite story. 646-789-5554; cupcakekids.com—APRIL WALLOGA
